Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Fattoria dei Barbi Vigna del Fiore 2018

— Bruce Sanderson —

“ This red is beefy and closed, with the dense, powerful structure putting the brakes on cherry, kirsch, plum and white pepper flavors for now. Yet there is plenty in reserve as this plays out on the lingering finish. If anything upsets the balance, this is a tad dry on the finish today, but give this the benefit of the doubt. Best from 2026 through 2045. ”
