Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Fattoria dei Barbi Vigna del Fiore 2017

Eric Guido

“The single-vineyard 2017 Brunello di Montalcino Vigna del Fiore is delicate and floral in nature, scents of rose and violet giving way to dried strawberries and hints of cedary spice. It washes across the palate with elegance, as silken textures carry red and hints of blue fruit across a core of saline-infused acidity [...] I worry about the longevity of the 2017 Vigna del Fiore [...] That said, it's a very pretty wine.”
