Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Fattoria dei Barbi Vigna del Fiore 2019

Eric Guido

“Dusty rose and cedar shavings give way to dried strawberries and clove as the delicate 2019 Brunello di Montalcino Vigna del Fiore unfolds in the glass. This is a model of purity, with a silken textural wave that washes across the palate, ushering in polished red fruits and inner orals that resonate throughout. [...] Nearly a minute goes by, and notes of inner rose and tart cranberry linger. This is a stunning interpretation of Vigna del Fiore.”
