Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Fattoria dei Barbi Riserva 2016

Michael Godel

“ [...] Dark cherries [...] is the hallmark notation of this vineyard’s aromatic pool. Fine tannins are tight [...], acids stream freely and easy [...] A bit [...] contained [...] and the warming finish indicates the need for a few years more time. [...] now here a ‘16 that might remind of Brunello from the 1970s. Drink 2025-2033. Tasted November 2021. ”
