Bruno Besa

“ Garnet to pink. Poised, elegant, complex red- and black-fruit nose, with apricots, minerals, flowers, potpourri, hints of sweet tobacco, and Mediterranean herbs. A superb palate, with mature yet lively fruit (rich black and red), super-fine tannins, and a long, mineral, complex finish. 2030-40. ”

“ [...] this improves with air, and 20 minutes later we have a much subtler wine, aromatically speaking [...] Sweet, warm, ample. The upper register holds, but this works so well in the upper register; splendid fruit energy, skillfully mastered tannins, long and articulate. Beautiful forest floor and roots to finish. 2025-35.”

“ This leads with a pronounced nose, including black cherry, cooked plum, dried herbs, dark chocolate, licorice, cedar, incense, sandalwood, raspberry jam, cinnamon, and black pepper. The palate is similarly impressive, with cocoa powder and dusty tannins joining the fray. [...] Drink this now, and enjoy the fireworks. 2024-29.”
